

CHILDREN'S THEATRE:

THE WOMAN AND THE WIND

TEATRON PSIK – JERUSALEM

A tale of a poor woman from whom the wind stole a sack of wheat. As a result of this, she turns to King Solomon with a request for justice.

The plot becomes more complicated when the King reveals to her that his royal fisherman, Tuna, has robbed him of all his possessions. The same wind, the King's faithful servant, asks to help him to track down the robber.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 23RD AT 11:00 AM.

TICKETS AT A SUBSIDIZED PRICE – 20 NIS

RECOMMENDED FOR CHILDREN FROM AGE 4+

"A LIGHT IN YOUR WINDOW"

A SPECIAL CHAMBER ISRAELI
CONCERT FOR HANUKKAH

THE ATAR TRIO

is hosting the soprano YEELA AVITAL

Ofer Shelley - piano and arrangements, Tanya Beltser - violin Marina Kats - Cello

This is a moving voyage between words and sounds, combining well-known popular Hebrew songs in an artistic and original rendering with contemporary Israeli chamber music.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25TH AT 20:00 PM

ONLY 50 NIS FOR A TICKET!

SPECIAL PRICE OF 40 NIS FOR STUDENTS, PENSIONERS, AND NEW OLIM

Fuchsberg Center at 8, Agron st. (opposite supersol)
Free parking available, on first come first served basis.

For further information: 02-6256386 Extension 6 or email: tarbut@uscj.org